3D Mammogram Coverage for Pennsylvania Health Plans

Effective October 5, 2015, health insurers must cover 3D mammograms the same as traditional two-dimensional mammograms covered under fully insured medical policies in Pennsylvania.

3D mammograms (tomosynthesis) uses modern technology to help physicians detect breast cancer and are becoming more common as many health care facilities are replacing 2D mammography with 3D technology.

For more information or to find a network provider, visit myuhc.com or call the member phone number on your health plan ID card.

Insurance coverage provided by or through UnitedHealthcare Insurance Company or its affiliates.